Charity Jazz Night

22nd May 2017, 7pm

The foundation "Act for Others" has succeeded in bringing together two award-winning jazz musicians for a concert in Prague.

Together with the VÖT VEREINIGUNG DER ÖSTERREICHER IN DER TSCHJECHISCHEN REPUBLIK we invite you to join this exceptional evening with:

Roman Pokorný (CZ)

Roman started his career in 1991. Inspired by the hard rock, soul and funk music of the sixties and the seventies, he created a very original fusion of these musical styles into his own jazz music. He recorded more than 8 albums - recently in April 2016 the Brooklyn Session in NYC with excellent jazz musicians from the USA.

Roman Pokorný received a variety of donors and awards for his outstanding work, including the "Golden Angel" of the Czech Academy of Popular Music.

Lorenz Kellhuber (D)

Standard Experience NY/USA

Lorenz, born in Munich in 1990, founded a Trio called Lorenz Kellhuber Standard Experience with two highly sought-after sidemen of New York's jazz scene, bassist Orlando le Fleming (Kurt Rosenwinkel, Joey Calderazzo) and drummer Obed Calvaire (SF Jazz Collective, Richard Bona), interpreting pieces from the Great American Songbook. "The Brooklyn Session"

"One of the most interesting jazz piano players of his generation" (Fono Forum).

Act for Others

We are a foundation registered in Prague which aims to support social projects in the Czech Republic. Our social project is called "Sdružení Neratov" and it's a village for disabled people, located 2 1/2 hours north-east of Prague.

For more information please visit our webpage www.actforothers.cz/en/projects/social-projects/.

This charity concert is organised by our foundation to raise money to support this social project.

Please come - enjoy the music and help us to help them.
